THIS IS THE SOUND OF NU-BRAZIL BY WAY OF VIENNA

CÉLIA MARA: BRAZILIAN BASTARDSOUND

"Brash, confident and assured" (Songlines, UK)

Célia Mara's Bastard Sound is an exciting, high quality dance-mix with thoughtful lyrics, illustrated by impressive live-visuals. It is transglobal samba-tango-jazz-reggae-hiphop-bossa-glamour-rock-ska-and-funk, effortlessly switchable to fit underground-clubs or popular open airs... „This is one for the hostels and student halls of Europe and South America; Manu Chao meets Yerba Buena meets Carlinhos Brown meets...“ states Fly global music culture, London; and: "the ladies dance - tempestuously!" at the Jazzfest Wien (harald justin).

The Set-list is bombastic – 90 minutes original Bastard Sound, all compositions from the (awarded) album Bastardista and from Santa Rebeldia. Groovy, surprising, defying categorization. The lyrics, sung in Portuguese, English, German, Spanish and French, are urban poems, the voice of migrations. Communication without any borders. All Célia Mara tracks are songs that are dedicated to the crucial questions of being, that is, love, politics and religion...

On stage, you'll get an awesome band, transmitting this urban Brazilian feeling, groovy underground ... with an explosive frontlady and a lot of rebellion! It is music coming out of a Central European Metropolis. Brazil strictly made in Vienna.

Célia Mara performed during the last 4 years trough out Europe, Russia and Northern Africa, presenting her eclectic shows on all kind of different festivals and locations - from huge Afro- or Reggae festivals to exclusive Jazz festivals, from real underground clubs to the most prestigious national concert halls.
