MEUS AMORES

CÉLIA MARA, BENJAMIM TAUBKIN & LUI COIMBRA

A Brazilian Love Journey ...

Célia Mara joined two of Brazil's most extraordinary instrumental artists to mix on stage an exciting love-portion out of Bossa Nova and Brazilian folklore, Latin Jazz and Tango, Boleros and Rumbas – welcome in “emozionia”! This is an acoustic, contemporary experience, playing with sweet temptation and sensual seduction! Be aware! To expect is a Brazilian night full of poetry and intensive feelings, a journey in the depth of prickling sentiments. With the extraordinary line-up of Célia Mara voice and guitar, Benjamim Taubkin on piano and Lui Coimbra on Cello.

Célia Mara, Brazilian singer songwriter resident in Austria, is among Europe's most renowned world music artist's, her latest albums “bastardista” and “Santa Rebeldia” were highly acclaimed by the international critics, with her band she brought her extraordinary bastardsound into big concert halls and festivals in Europe, Northern Africa and Russia.

On piano, the virtuoso Benjamim Taubkin from São Paulo will give his personal flavor to Mara's Brazilian love songs... surprising, sensual, intensive... Benjamim is surely one of Brazil's most recommended piano-players, well known for his border- and genre crossing work in contemporary music, as director of big symphonic orchestras as well as Solist or Bandleader in chamber music, in Choro or in Jazz. You might know him as well as Sissy Possi's sideman...

On Cello: you will discover Lui Coimbra, from Rio de Janeiro, the third man in “meus amores”. He is an impressive multi-instrumentalist with a velvet voice, an outstanding artist in the Brazilian music scene. He already played with all big stars in Brazil, produced and arranged for the musical elite of Brazil: Just to give you an idea: Caetano Veloso, Zeca Baleiro or Ana Carolina...

To expect is a Brazilian night full of poetry and intensive feelings, a journey in the depth of prickling sentiments. With a impressive singer and amazing musicians!
